

Language Arts

Week 2

Decodable Readers: read one decodable a day (Mon-Thurs)

- Read the title and decide whether the book is fiction or non-fiction, why?
- Read the story with your child, then they should read it alone, and then to another family member.
- Hi-lite or underline the vowel rule (count how many words you find):

See the Birds: ir words

A Bath for Mert: er words

Fox and Crow: ur words

Meet Gert: ur, ir and er words

Re-tell/Facts -

- Identify the characters
- Identify the setting
- What are the 3 main events of the story
- If the story is non-fiction then write 3 things that you learned.

On the 5th day, choose one story. Re-read the story, then on the sheet provided write why it was your favorite and make sure that you give a reason why it was your favorite. Draw a picture and label it.