A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Good evening and welcome to the Niagara Proscenium Player's production of Grease! I cannot think of a better way to spend an evening than in the theatre witnessing a live performance. Theatre is a special entity that has the ability to make us laugh, cry, sing and dance. The musical that you about to see tonight does that and more! I'm not sure there is a person out there who has never heard of Grease. The characters are lovable and the music engaging.

I am so thrilled that our talented cast is able to bring one of theater's most popular musicals to you. We all are familiar with the movie starring John Travolta and Olivia Newton-John as star crossed teenaged lovers. It is the classic boy meets girl story. If you have already gone through your high school years, watching the film or a staged version, instantly transforms you back to those fun filled days. If you are currently in high school there are many elements about this musical and the teenage experience that you can relate to.

Grease is set in a Southern California High School in the mid to late 1950's. In those days every guy, wanted to be Elvis Presley and/or James Dean. Slicked back hair and Leather Jackets were every teenaged boy's dream and every parent's nightmare. Every girl wanted to be America's Sweetheart Sandra Dee complete with Poodle Skirts and Bobby Socks.

There is a "running joke" in the theatre world of that says: "Every once in awhile you have to do Grease." Truer words were never spoken. The show is incredibly fun filled, wildly popular and extremely relatable. So, for this evening and throughout the run of this show, we want you to slick your hair back, get out those poodle skirts and let's all go to the sock hop! So, sit back,

Way to go, Bean!
We are so proud of you.
Can't wait to watch you!

Love, Aunt Jill, Uncle Al and Jacob

MEET THE INDUCTEES

JANET DUNSTAN

Janet Dunstan lived a life dedicated to her craft of dance, choreography and the arts. A graduate of Niagara Wheatfield High School and Niagara County Community College, she was a wife, mom, grandmother, and beloved dance teacher to the city of Niagara Falls, and its surrounding communities.

Janet was introduced to dance being an active child, and from that point never stopped. She grew up dancing at Miss Bev's dance studio, where she then taught classes, and became a part of Am Dance Play, the pre professional company. Janet was an integral part of the Niagara Falls Drama program, with Marva Frails and John Eiklor, and she was also a founding life long member of the Niagara Experience Players.

John Eiklor believed in Janet and encouraged her to start her own studio. He picked her up when she had no car to teach and gave her her first space in the old Niagara Falls High School to start her studio. Thus, Niagara Falls Dance Academy was born.

Niagara Falls Dance Academy then moved years later (1983) to 2601 Pine Avenue, at the grace of her father in law, Vito Alongi. Vito helped her start her space in one room , which then grew to two rooms. In years following, Janet opened a Lewiston location at the Lew Port Community Ed building, where she stayed there for 14 years. That is when the name changed to Janet Dunstan's Dance Academy.

Miss Janet is known for her epic sets , and commitment to the art of dance and teaching . She always represented the highest quality of dance, and possessed a belief that ALL kids can achieve personal excellence. It didn't matter if she was choreographing a play, a competitive dance, a recital piece, everything was treated with the same importance. You could have zero dance experience , and you could be someone who trained for 10 hours a week, but everything she choreographed, turned out with everyone doing the same thing, everyone going the same way, everyone completely confident on the stage, and everyone exuding PRIDE. Miss Janet demanded one hundred percent on and off the stage. She taught you “good things come to those who work hard.” She challenged you to be a better person and give the most of yourself. Exceptional people, become exceptional performers, and if you want it, go get it. Make your own way and be the best YOU can be. You can spot a “Janet’s dancer” a mile away, because they know how to be professional, carry themselves , and adapt, in any situation. They were and are trained professionals. That is why many of her students have been both on and off Broadway , in professional dance companies, in college dance programs, dance teachers, and professionals at what they chose to do.

Miss Janet leaves a legacy. Being a woman in business for over 40 years, giving her time and talent, inspiring so many kids of all ages, all backgrounds, and all levels, she truly defines humility. May her heart still continue on in all that still pass through her door to learn, and may we celebrate all of her hard work and many accomplishments.

A true “win” is living a life doing what you love. Janet took her passion and lived it day in and out. Blood, sweat, joy and tears, she made her business with her own two hands, quite literally, and is an example for us all.

Thank you for leading the most beautiful life, and giving us EVERYTHING you had inside.
